Any person abusing this exemption and transporting such articles otherwise than in reasonable quantities for his own use, will be held to have contravened this rule, and will, on conviction, become liable to the penalties under sections 13 and 14.

Note.—A cooly or servant carrying a packet properly secured and addressed to an exempted person so long as he travels with it on the direct route from the licensed dealer's premises or a railway station to the residence of such exempted person will be held to require no license provided that the exempted person is responsible for the conduct of the cooly or servant he employs and that the cooly or servant himself does not deviate from the direct route.

8. A person licensed to possess arms, ammunition or military stores, or who is exempted from the liability to take out such a license, is entitled to transport to his residence, from the premises of a licensed dealer, arms, ammunition or military stores without a separate transport license, so long as the articles purchased are in reasonable quantity and for his own use. A licensed dealer in arms, ammunition and military stores may supply the order of any such person, and may, without a separate transport license, send or despatch, in any way desired, to the residence of the purchaser, the articles ordered by any such person, so long as they fulfil the requirements of Rule 7, and are legibly addressed to the person for whom they are intended.

Application for transport-license.

10. Persons desirous of transporting arms, ammunition or military stores must apply in writing to the officer authorized to grant transport licenses from the place of despatch. The application must specify—

(d) in the case of breech-loading rifles and balled rifle ammunition, whether the previous sanction of the Government has been obtained.

Contents of packages to be marked.

11. Persons transporting arms, ammunition or military stores under a license must write legibly on the cases or packages containing such articles an account of their contents.

Procedure on arrival of articles at destination.

12. Within six days of the articles reaching their destination, the consignee must deliver the transport license to the Magistrate of the district, who must satisfy himself that the articles transported to his district correspond with the entries in the license, and that any deficiency is properly accounted for.

Manufacture and sale.

Licenses to manufacture, convert, keep and sell.

13. Licenses to manufacture, convert, keep and sell arms or ammunition or military stores may be granted by the Magistrate of the district or by the Magistrate of a sub-division of the district. Magistrates and all Police officers not below the rank of Inspector are hereby empowered to enter and inspect any premises within their several jurisdictions in which arms or ammunition or sulphur are manufactured, or kept, and to examine the stock and accounts of receipts and sales of arms, ammunition and military stores. Every person licensed to sell arms and ammunition shall affix a signboard on a conspicuous part of his shop or usual place of business, and shall cause to be painted thereon in large letters in English, or in Kannada, his name and the words "licensed to manufacture," or "licensed to deal in arms, ammunition and military stores," as the case may be. 14. Licenses to manufacture, convert, keep and sell arms or ammunition issued under Rule 13 shall exclude by specific and express condition, (1) the manufacture and conversion of breech-loaders and (2) the use of parts of British Military weapons (whether condemned or not) in any process of manufacture and conversion.

Licenses to possess arms and go armed sport, etc.

15. Licenses to possess arms and ammunition in reasonable quantities and to go armed for purposes of sport of protection, or of display, may be granted by the Magistrate of the district or by the Magistrate of a sub-division of the district in Form IV. But the holder, unless specially authorized by the Magistrate, must not go armed in railway carriages, or to fairs, religious processions, or other public assemblages. Licenses granted under this rule shall, on countersignature by the Secretary to Government in the General Department, or other officer authorized in this regard by the Government, be valid for such districts as may be specified by the countersigning officer.

16. The Magistrate of the district or the Magistrate of a sub-division of the district may grant a license in Form V for a journey, specifying the direction of the journey, and the period it will occupy. Such license will be valid in other jurisdictions only for such journey and for such period, and will be liable to a fee of four annas for each weapon. Holders of licenses under this rule, unless specially authorized by the officer granting the licenses, must not go armed in railway carriages, or to fairs, religious processions, or other public assemblages.

When such Magistrate receives an application for a license in Form V from a person who is not resident within his jurisdiction, or is not personally known to him, he shall, before granting the license, ascertain from the Magistrate of the district or sub-division of the district in which the applicant resides, whether there is any objection to the grant of the license, unless for reasons to be recorded, he considers this precaution to be clearly unnecessary.

Licenses to possess arms.

17. Licenses to possess fire-arms or ammunition or military stores may be granted by the Magistrate of the district or sub-division of the district in Form VI without fee, and shall be valid for five years. Such licenses will not authorize the holders to go armed or to carry arms. Licenses to possess and carry arms (Form IV) will be liable to fees as stated in Rule 15.

Licenses to possess and carry arms for destroying wild animals.

18. Licenses to possess and carry arms and ammunition may be granted by the Magistrate of the district or sub-division of the district in Form VII without fee, and for a term of five years, to persons who require arms for the destruction of wild animals which do injury to human beings, cattle, or crops. Such a license will be valid only in or on the immediate confines of the district for which it is granted. It will be subject to the conditions that the license and the weapon it covers are shown once a year, between the 15th November and the 31st December, to the nearest Magistrate; that the weapon becomes confiscated to Government directly it is sold or seized in execution of any debt; and that such weapon is carried only on occasions when it is to be used bonâ fide for the destruction of wild animals. Holders of licenses under this rule must not go armed in railway carriages, or to fairs, religious processions, or other public assemblages. Restriction as regards breech-loading rifles and balled rifle ammunition.

19. Licenses in Forms I, IV, V, VI and VII shall not, in the case of breech-loading rifles and balled rifle ammunition, be granted without the previous sanction of the Government.

Licenses for possession or transport of sulphur.

20. Licenses for the possession or transport of sulphur, proved to the satisfaction of Government to be intended only for bonâ fide medicinal, manufacturing or agricultural purposes, may be granted without payment of any fee. This concession does not extend to sulphur intended for the manufacture of gunpowder or of ammunition generally, as defined in Section 4 of the Mysore Arms Regulation.

General.

Fees how levied.

21. The fees leviable under these rules shall be taken in the shape of "impressed stamps." Ordinarily the applications for licenses or renewals of licenses shall be written on "impressed stamps" of value equal to the amount of fee leviable in respect of such licenses or renewals, and the licenses will be issued on plain paper. But when the licenses themselves are written or printed on "impressed stamps," the applications may be on paper of the value hereinafter mentioned. When an application for a license is written on an "impressed stamp," and the license is refused, the value of the stamp will be refunded to the applicant.

Applications for licenses.

22. Applications for licenses in respect of which no fee is leviable, or regarding licenses printed on impressed stamps on which the full fee has been paid, shall be considered to be applications within the meaning of Schedule II, Article I, Clause (a), of the Mysore Court Fees Regulation, 1900, and shall bear a Court-fee stamp of one anna.

Period of currency of licenses.

23. All licenses under Rules 13 and 15 shall expire on the 31st December of the year for which they may be issued; licenses under Rule 18 shall expire on the 31st December of the fifth year of their currency. But the currency of a license may be renewed,—previous to its expiration, and on payment of a second fee,—by the same authority that granted it; provided always that, where a renewal of license is applied for as aforesaid, the period of its currency shall, whether the application is eventually granted or refused, be deemed to include the interval during which the application was pending disposal.

Grant of duplicates of licenses lost or destroyed.

24. When a license granted in accordance with these rules is lost or accidentally destroyed, a duplicate may be granted to the licensee on payment of the same fee as he paid on the original license, if not in excess of one rupee; and, in any other case, on payment of a fee of one rupee. Cultivators or other persons to whom licenses may have been granted without payment of any fee may obtain duplicates of such licenses, if lost or destroyed, free of all fee.

Conditions subject to which licenses are granted.

25. All licenses shall be given and held subject to the conditions endorsed on the reverse, and subject to these rules and to the provisions of the Arms Regulation. Where arms are intended to be employed in the pursuit of game, a separate license under the Mysore Game Regulation and Rules is necessary. Licenses under Rules 15 and 18 may also be granted subject to the observance of a close season in the pursuit of animals and birds that do not injure either men, or cattle, or crops and are not otherwise provided for. The limits of the close season will be decided by the Government, and the condition regarding such close season, if imposed, shall be endorsed on the reverse of the license.

Licenses to be produced on demand.

26. Any person holding a license, or acting under a license, granted in accordance with these rules, shall be bound to produce the same, when called upon to do so by any Magistrate or by any Police Officer in charge of a Police Station, or by any Police Officer of higher rank.

Language of licenses.

27. Licenses granted for use within a district shall be written or printed in Kannada. Licenses for use beyond the district where they may be granted shall be in English and may be in Kannada as well.

28. A license granted under these rules will cover only the weapons or other articles and the person named therein, unless the officer granting a license under Rule 15 or 16 deems it expedient to include the retainers of any person named in the license; in such case, the entry on the face of the license shall declare how many and whose retainers are covered by the license. Joint licenses in the names of more than one person cannot be issued; every person seeking to possess or carry arms must take out a separate license.

Powers of officers empowered to grant licenses.

29. Any officer empowered to grant a license under these rules may, at his discretion, refuse to grant, to renew, or to consent to the issue of, a license, or may refer any application for the orders of the Government.
